Drs. Steven and Caitlin McKee cut their wedding cake.

Pulaski Heights United Methodist Church was the setting at 7 p.m. Saturday, May 14, for the marriage of Dr. Caitlin Windham Reid and Dr. Steven Greg McKee. The Rev. Lynn Lindsey officiated.

Parents of the bride are Dr. Shirley Reid of Little Rock and Toni and Dr. Graham Reid of Maumelle. She is the granddaughter of Allene and the late Ralph Windham of Little Rock and the late Reba and Orville Reid of Sheridan.

The bridegroom is the son of Sheila and Joe Kovach of Little Rock and Sharon and Greg McKee of Bryant. His grandparents are Jane and Charlie McWhorter of Fayetteville and Ethlyne and the late Ronald McKee of South Bend, Ind.

The altar held a tall arrangement of snapdragons, larkspur, roses, hydrangeas and peonies in shades of orange, lavender, yellow and dark pink. Music was by organist Jim Maase and vocalist Parker Higgs.

The bride, given in marriage by her parents, wore a Mikado off-white silk fit-and-flare gown with a cathedral-length train. She carried a bouquet of peonies, roses, snapdragons and pincushion protea along with hosta leaves and cuttings from her mother's garden.

Serving as the bride's honor attendants were her sisters, Ashlan Reid of Oyster Bay, N.Y., and Emily Reid Greenwood of Mebane, N.C. Bridesmaids were Katie West of Mobile, Ala.; Dr. Lesya Sowder of Salt Lake City; Greer Culbertson of Austin, Texas; and Jamie Bandy of Little Rock. They wore jade-colored chiffon gowns and carried bouquets of peonies, roses, thistle, lisianthus and snapdragons.

Flower girl and ring bearer were Kaytee Davis of Bryant, niece of the bridegroom, and Carew Davis of Oyster Bay, nephew of the bride.

Christopher Drangle of Oakland, Calif., was best man. Groomsmen were Dr. Tyler CarlLee of Iowa City, Iowa; Parker Higgs of Little Rock; Dr. Aaron Strobel of Denver; Dr. Justin Sowder of Salt Lake City; and
