HALEY ELIZABETH WHISENHUNT BARRY JONES MCCASKILL

Barry and Haley McCaskill

Haley Elizabeth Whisenhunt and Barry Jones McCaskill were united in marriage at 5:30 p.m. Saturday, June 11, in Fellowship Bible Church. Bruce Chesser of First Baptist Church in Hendersonville, Tenn., officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Gene and Kathy Whisenhunt, 16 Bellegarde Drive. She is the granddaughter of Patsy and the late Lewis Sewell of Mabelvale and Nell Pennington of Hot Springs.

Parents of the bridegroom are Becky Jones and Ron McCaskill of Arkadelphia. His grandparents are Sue and Ken Jones of Little Rock and the late Elizabeth and Claude McCaskill of Arkadelphia.

The chancel was decorated with an arbor built by the bridegroom's father and decorated with ivory and blush wedding flowers. Music was by pianist Pam Wessel and vocalist Layten Moseley.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a fitted gown embellished with ivory lace and off-the-shoulder cap sleeves. She carried a round bouquet of roses, hydrangeas and peonies.

Mary Harrell of Conway served as her sister's matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Lynne Holloway of Conway, Audrey Craven of West Memphis, Lauren Boyles of Little Rock, Meredith Woodruff of Dallas, Sarah Crabill of Fort Worth, Kendall Calvert of Denver and Julie Willard of Germantown, Tenn. They wore charcoal-gray chiffon gowns with draped halter-style bodices and open backs and carried bouquets similar to the bride's.

Flower girls were Brooklyn Karm, Ellie Crow and Raegan Dowell, all of Hot Springs; ring bearers were Benjamin Burson of Little Rock and Walker Raney of Mayflower.

Best man was Richard Atkinson of Little Rock. Groomsmen were Jared Whisenhunt of Little Rock, brother of the bride; Bubby Harrell of Conway; Jarod Townsend of Tulsa; Josh Hesse of Conway; Neal Ozmun of Pocatello, Idaho; John Morgan of Benton; and Charles Hunter of Madison,
