

WEDDINGS

SARAH JOAN KURRUS PHILIP AHRENS BEMBERG

Sarah and Philip Bemberg

Sarah Joan Kurrus and Philip Ahrens Bemberg were united in marriage at 6 p.m. Saturday, June 18, in Asbury United Methodist Church. The Rev. Mary Hilliard officiated.

Parents of the bride are Virginia and Baker Kurrus of Little Rock. Her grandparents are Mary Louise and the late Lloyd Kuhnmuench of St. Louis and the late Joan and Andrew Kurrus Jr. of Pine Bluff.

Lydia and Robert Bemberg of Little Rock are the parents of the bridegroom. He is the grandson of the late Lois and Herman Henry Bemberg Jr. and the late Norma Bisgood and the late Michael Bisgood, all of Little Rock.

The altar held an arrangement of hydrangeas, peonies, freesia and tulips in white and pale pink shades. Music was by organist Anguel Kehayov.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an ivory A-line gown of Chantilly lace with a sweetheart neckline. Her tulle veil was chapel-length. She carried a bouquet of all white hydrangeas, peonies, sweet pea, freesia, roses and tulips.

Madeline Kurrus Moore of Little Rock served as her sister's matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Rachel Arnold, Chandler Bailey, Sarah Davis, Sarah Gibson and Lucy Whiteside, all also of Little Rock; Jennifer Mehl of Houston; Jennifer Morrison and Anna Watkins, both of Dallas; and Lindsey Shindler of Washington. They wore navy chiffon gowns with gathered bodices and carried bouquets of white hydrangeas.

Best man was Robert Lindsay Bemberg Jr. of Little Rock, brother of the bridegroom. Groomsmen were Samuel Baber; Clay Bemberg, cousin of the bridegroom, and William Crass, David Hesselbein, Mark Lienhart, Matthew Moore, Miles Stephens, Charles Wise and Andrew Kurrus, brother of the bride, all also
